

Injuries of the Extremities

Each participant must complete an evaluation to receive a Contact hour certificate for this educational activity. Please be as honest and objective as possible.

1. Rate the extent to which the objectives were met by circling the appropriate number.

Learner's achievement of each objective	Met	Partially met	Not met
Recognize an expanded knowledge of Injuries of the Extremities specific to Workers' Compensation and Casualty claims.	1	2	3
Identification and understanding Injuries of the Extremities specific to Worker's Compensation and Casualty claims.	1	2	3
Identification of the appropriate evaluation of the injury.	1	2	3
Identification of the appropriate treatment of the injury.	1	2	3
Identification of the appropriate case management of the injury.	1	2	3

2. Rate the relevance of the objectives to overall purpose/goals.

Relevance of objectives to overall purpose/goals of the educational activity.	Yes related	Yes Partially related	No Not related
Were the objectives listed above and the course material relevant to the course goal of providing education in Injuries of the Extremities for Rehabilitation and Casualty Claims Nurses?	1	2	3

If no, please explain.

3. Rate the teaching expertise of the presenter.

Evaluation of presenter	Met	Partially met	Not met
Name: Ruth R. McIntosh
Speaker's expertise enhanced the activity.	1	2	3
Teaching strategies were appropriate for the objectives and content.	1	2	3

4. Rate the appropriateness of physical facilities.

Non-applicable Online Study	Appropriate	Somewhat appropriate	Not appropriate
Appropriateness of physical facilities	1	2	3

5. Comments/Recommendations